Position Description

Pacific Chorale Academy is a unique after-school choir program which combines music education and character building, offered free to students in grades 2-6 at selected partner sites. Resident teaching artists lead weekly rehearsals which focus on persistence, teamwork, and responsibility along with musical skills. PC Academy received a national award from Chorus America for its impact in neighborhoods that have limited access to arts enrichment opportunities.

The curriculum includes healthy, age-appropriate vocal technique, solfege, and rhythmic skills taught via choral repertoire. Character building is an integral part of the teaching and learning process. The program takes place in school and/or after school at each site, and students join this program voluntarily.

The Teaching Artist is part of a two-person teaching team at each site. This teaching team will ensure the highest quality beginning choral experience for students, select repertoire and teaching materials, and support each child holistically.

Responsibilities

- Collaborate with PC Academy and partner faculty to create and implement engaging lesson plans and concert programs which encourage healthy singing and reinforce music literacy.
- Conduct ensembles of 20-40 students, including choosing appropriate repertoire.
- Communicate effectively with students, site staff, parents, and the entire PC Academy team.
- Participate in regular planning meetings. All preparation time is paid.
- Work with staff and outside professionals to implement, document and evaluate the program.

Qualifications and Desired Traits

- Experience teaching vocal music to children in a classroom setting required.
- Demonstrated excellent musicianship, creativity and artistry as a teacher/performer.
- Strong classroom management skills.
- Experience leading and conducting choral ensembles.
- Interest and ability to be a motivational mentor and role model for students, parents, and peers as an artist, teacher, and citizen.
- Strong understanding of standard music pedagogy and solfege. Training or certification in Kodaly, Orff, and/ or Dalcroze a plus.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills and the ability to work effectively with a wide range of constituencies in a diverse community.
- Spanish, Vietnamese, or other second language skills a plus.
- Basic piano skills are required. Guitar skills a plus. An accompanist is provided at each site.
- Flexibility and creativity to adapt to curriculum goals and ability to work collaboratively.
- Ability to work during program hours as well as additional hours for planning meetings, professional development, concerts, and field trips.

Requirements

- If hired, Teaching Artists are required to comply with Pacific Chorale's Child Safety Policy, which includes submitting fingerprints for a background check and providing proof of completed COVID vaccination. Tuberculosis screening may also be required for some sites.
- May be required to lift up to 25 pounds (such as boxes of music, chairs, music stands, etc.) either alone or with assistance.

Compensation and Benefits

$50-$60 per hour. All teaching, planning, and meeting time is compensated at the hourly rate.

About Pacific Chorale

The mission of Pacific Chorale is to inspire our community through artistry and innovation in choral music performances and education programs.

Located in Costa Mesa, California, Pacific Chorale has delighted national and international audiences with concerts of great choral music performed at the highest musical standards since 1968. Under the artistic leadership of Robert Istad, the organization produces a series of concerts each year at Segerstrom Center for the Arts, where it serves as the resident choir. Pacific Chorale is recognized for exceptional artistic expression, preserving and performing classical choral music as well as presenting stimulating American-focused programming. In addition to its own substantial performance season and long-standing partnership with Pacific Symphony, the Chorale is sought regularly to perform with the nation's leading symphonies, having performed with such renowned American ensembles as the Los Angeles Philharmonic, the Boston Symphony, the National Symphony, San Diego Symphony, Los Angeles Chamber Orchestra, Philharmonia Baroque Orchestra, and Musica Angelica.
